

Clint Schipper

Clint holds an Honors degree in Zoology and is a birding and wildlife fanatic. He has spent the last ten years roaming across East Africa, he first arrived in East Africa in 2000 and was immediately captivated by Africa's magic. After travelling for a several months throughout Tanzania, Uganda and Kenya, Clint found himself being a foster parent to a chimpanzee on Ngamba Island, Uganda! After this experience there was no way that Clint could leave East Africa and since this time he has been guiding and involved in the conservation and tourism industries.

Fratern Tarimo

Fratern was born and raised at the foot of Mt. Kilimanjaro, Tanzania. His dream has always been to create a company that will present the best of Tanzania while at the same time contributing to the local economy. While Fratern one of our co founders he is also currently Managing Director of The Foundation For Tomorrow, a nonprofit organization that operates in Arusha, Tanzania. Fratern hopes to use his experience to link Kuro expeditions' adventures to community development, especially in the education sector.
